Our Own Antiques Roadshow

Want to know if it's old? Old enough to be an antique?
 Want to know the value of your heirloom – whether it's worth dusting and taking up space?

Come Sunday, July 7, 2013 (Note new date)
 at 2:15 p.m. at the Museum.

Following a brief business meeting (2:00 p.m.) and his Power Point presentation, John Leonard will give us insight into antiques and collectibles and how an appraiser values an item.

Due to time and space limitations, each item must be pre-registered by calling (847) 390-0160, to secure a spot on the appraisal floor. There will be a nominal $3.00 charge for each item to be paid (3 items maximum) an the Auditorium entrance. We cannot furnish appraisals on guns or large furniture.

Any questions, please call the Museum.

Leonard Auction Inc., was founded by auctioneer and appraiser John Leonard in 2006. John is a member of the International Society of Appraisers (ISA) and Certified Appraise Guild of America and has spoken at historical societies, libraries, and churches.

There will be a Q & A period, great stories and the afternoon promises to be enjoyable and educational.
